

Camp Wilderness Presents Wilderness Factor Trek

Backpacking ✨ Kayaking ✨ Fishing ✨ Survival ✨ Cooking ✨ Climbing ✨ Trapping ✨ Pioneering ✨ Geocaching ✨

Camp Wilderness encompasses hundreds of acres of unexplored land at Ingersoll Scout Reservation. This summer, Camp Wilderness presents a week-long trek for Scouts and Venturers looking for a new kind of summer experience. The Wilderness Factor adventure will immerse you in a week of exciting fellowship and challenging activities to bring out your true wilderness self. Participants will spend the week in the sparsely traveled areas of camp.

All Trek participants have received a unique summer experience that will not be soon forgotten.

Participants will work on nine Merit Badges throughout the week!

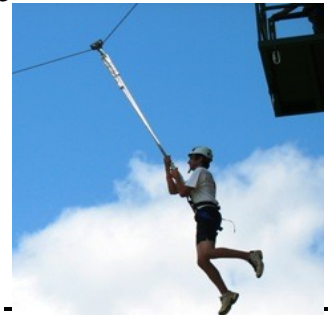

“Amazing Program for older Scouts
Very Knowledgeable Staff
Challenging Activities”
- Trek Participants

Any Scout who has attended camp in 2010, can come back for a second week and join the Wilderness Factor Trek for a Reduced Rate of $105

If your Scouts are interested, please have them complete the following information and mail to the council service center. A special packet will be mailed to participants giving further details and equipment needs for the week. This trek will act as a provisional troop, so participants can come any week of the summer.

The trek is open to all Boy Scouts age 13-18 and Venture Crew Members age 14-20 (male and female).

Please send registration in ASAP as only 16 participants allowed every week! Final payment and registration is due by June 1, 2010!
